Referral Program

It is the policy of Wholly Crap that a current customer will receive one free cleaning when they refer a new customer for repeat business.

Why should people be concerned with the removal of waste?

Dog waste often contains a variety of organisms – including bacteria and internal parasites – which may be both communicable and harmful. Various diseases and parasitic infections can be spread from dog to dog through uncollected feces. Because many dogs have a propensity to eat another dog's waste, the threat of spreading disease this way should be a real concern to pet owners. In addition, it could be especially harmful to children.
